KENT.

Venice, January 10. N. S. Two Britiſh Merchantmen arrived here laſt Week, one laden with Sugar and Lead from Briſtol, the other with Fiſh from Norway. The French Ambaſſador left this City laſt Monday, being accompanied as far as Padua by the Prince of St. Buono, the Duke of Anjou's Ambaſſador, who is ſince returned to this City. The Senate hath commanded the Procurator Ottoboni to lay before them the Proceedings between the Court of France and his Son, who, it is reported, hath received Orders from the French King to ſet up the Arms of France over his Door, and publickly take upon him the Protection of that Crown, with a Promiſe that his Chriſtian Majeſty would maintain his Right againſt any other Pretenders whatſoever; but we are adviſed from Rome, that the Cardinal hath declined thoſe Meaſures, and returned an Anſwer to the Coure of France, that he will no ways diſoblige his Native Country, and unleſs he can obtain the Conſent of the Republick of Venice, he will not any ways concern himſelf in the Adminiſtration of the Affairs of that Kingdom. We are adviſed, that the French Miniſter at Florence hath been obliged to return home, becauſe he cannot obtain Remittances of Mony to ſupport the Dignity of his Character in that City. Signior Toſcari, a Subject of this Republick, having accepted of the Honour of Knighthood from King Auguſtus, an Expreſs hath been ſent to Dreſden, to order him to return to this City, and anſwer it to the Senate for receiving any Dignity from a Foreign Prince without their Conſent and Approbation. But that Gentleman's Effects being out of this Republick, it is believed he will not obey this Order, but rather ſuffer his Name to be razed out of the Regiſter, than come to Venice. Advices from Rome ſay, that the Pope continued to be very much indiſpoſed, inſomuch that ſome Cabals were held about the Election of a new Pope; yet it is believed he will recover his former State of Health by the Advantage of the Air of the Quirinal, where he will ſpeedily remove his Court by the Advice of his Phyſicians. Letters from Naples ſay, that Cardinal Grimani was providing great Sums of Mony, and conſiderable Stores of Ammunition and Proviſion, which are to be tranſported to Catalonia; and a Squadron of five Men of War is fitting out at that Port, which is to ſerve as Convoy to their Merchantmen, under the Command of Chevalier Pallavicini, who is ſuddenly expected there from Barcelona.

Milan, January 11. N. S. We are in hopes that the Differences between the Emperor and the Duke of Savoy will be ſpeedily determined. It is reported, that the Imperial Miniſters have propoſed an Expedient of exchanging ſome Lands in Italy with his Royal Highneſs, as the moſt effectual Method for accommodating theſe Affairs. General Palmes is arrived here from Turin, in order to proceed on his Journey to the Court of Vienna, with the Character of Envoy-Extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain. We are adviſed from Genoa, that a Fluſhing Privateer had lately brought into that Port a French Veſſel laden with Corn, and bound for Marſeilles; and that the Engliſh Squadron which is Cruiſing on the Coaſt of France, had taken fifteen Corn Ships bound for that Kingdom, and ſent them to Barcelona; and the Enemy are apprehenſive, that a great Fleet laden with that Commodity, which is expected from the Levant, will alſo be intercepted by the Confederates. Theſe Advices add, that they had received an Account from Barcelona of ſeveral Advantages which General Staremberg had gained over the Enemy; that he did frequently beat up their Quarters, and had diſlodged them from divers conſiderable Poſts on the Frontiers of Arragon. Letters from Naples ſay, that beſides the Loſs which the Enemy ſuſtained at the Siege of Orbitello, four hundred of their Men had Deſerted ſince that Expedition, and liſted themſelves in the Service of his Catholick Majeſty. Letters from Rome ſay, that the Pope had granted Leave for opening the Theatre of Caprinica; but to avoid the Diſputes which would have happened between the Miniſters of his Catholick Majeſty and thoſe of the Duke of Anjou, concerning the Boxes belonging to the Spaniſh Miniſters, his Holineſs had ſuſpended that Licenſe.

Hague, January 24. N. S. The States of Holland continue their Application to find out neceſſary Funds for Czeremetof was arrived in that City from the Muſcovite Camp before Riga, and had received large Remittances of Mony for the Payment of the Troops which are employed in the bombardment of that Place. The Swedes are ſo ſtrictly blocked up, that they have no manner of Communication with the Neighbouring Country, and no Perſon can enter the City without the Permiſſion of the Muſcovites. His Czariſh Majeſty is expected at the Camp about the middle of February next, at which time the Siege will be proſecuted with the utmoſt Vigour; but the Beſiegers at preſent bombard the Town only by Intervals.

Falmouth, January 12. This Day came in the Revenge-Galley, a Privateer of Guernſey, of fourteen Guns and eighty Men, Edward du Mareſque Commander, who on the 9th Inſtant took on the French Coaſt the St. Antony, of fourteen Guns and ſixty Men, and the St. Antony de Padua, of ten Guns and thirty five Men, both of and from Granville for St. Maloe, with Salt, &c. There are two Veſſels in ſight, ſuppoſed to be the ſaid Prizes, which are plying to the Windward, and endeavour to make this Harbour.

Plimouth, January 13. Yeſterday ſailed Sir John Norris in the Ranelaugh, with the Elizabeth, Hampton-Court, Grafton, Nottingham, Dartmouth, and Goſport, and about one hundred and thirty Merchant-ſhips under their Convoy, and off this Harbour they were joined by the Ipſwich. The ſame Day came in a Genoeſe laden with Fruit, bound for London. This Day came in her Majeſty's Ships the Sunderland, Monk's-Prize, Cruizer and Roſe from the Eaſtward, and the Owners Endeavour of Topſham, bound for Carolina, Dartmouth, January 13. On the 11th Inſtant ſailed hence her Majeſty's Ships the Monk's-Prize and Cruizer for Plimouth, and under their Convoy all the ſmall Merchant-ſhips that lay here, bound Weſtward: Remains only here the Veſſel laden with Grocery bound for Topſham, which waits the return of the Men of War the firſt Weſterly Wind.

Cowes, January 14. There is come into this Road the Fortune of and for Rotterdam, Corn. Buff Maſter, from Rochel, who reports, that they are in that Place under great Difficulties by reaſon of the ſcarcity of Corn.

Portſmouth, January 15. Yeſterday Sir Charles Wager hoiſted his Flag on Board her Majeſty's Ship the Windſor at Spithead.

Deale, January 15. This Day came in a Swede from Dieppe, waiting Orders; and Yeſterday in the Afternoon came down the John and Alice, bound for Leghorne.

The Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, having directed that the Men who did belong to her Majeſty's late Ship the Solebay, and were ſaved when ſhe was caſt away, do repair on Board her Majeſty's Ship the Royal Anne at Portſmouth, to ſerve in her, where they will be paid their Wages before ſhe ſails from Spithead; theſe are to give Notice thereof, that ſo the ſaid Men may repair on Board the Royal Anne accordingly.
